A Loving Family
A Loving Family is the second book that I've read by Dilly Court and it feels like her standard fare. Maybe that's a bit harsh of me to say after only two books; but they've felt like they're pretty much on the same level, enjoyable but not ground breaking.

Five Signs of a Loving Family - globalchristiancenter.com
It's because we love each other, whether we want to admit it or not. Most families I know are very loving and kind to their relatives, because, well… they love them. But, the sad truth is not all kids get to grow up with caring families. I believe having a loving family is one of the most important things in life.
