Photography. Early 20th century art photography develops under the influence of painting. Practitioners create handmade, subjective images in an effort to advance photography as a legitimate art form. By World War 1 all of this changes with the emergence of photography's first modern voice.

Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography

Creating, in one useful, comprehensive publication, an encyclopedia of the history and practice of photography in the twentieth century is a daunting task. In any endeavor, the doing of it often best teaches how it should be done; and not only does the doing perfect the process, it refines the understanding of the subject of the endeavor, and focuses the content to be more authoritative.
