*We usually think of banjo chords as normally having 4 notes, one for each string. The exception would be, for instance, when the melody or highest note is below the pitch of the 1st string—we would try to play just the lowest 3 strings—and if fingering were displayed, it would show an “x” on the first string. To make all those barre chords easier, the 4-string banjo's neck was shortened from 22 frets to 17, and then lengthened back to 19. And the folk-friendly tuning was changed to viola tuning: ADGC (from highest to lowest note). This is considered by many to be the "standard" tenor banjo or tenor guitar tuning.

All these song tabs are for the mandolin or 4 string tenor banjo. I choose these songs as they are familiar to most people, plus they are all fairly easy to play and don't have too many notes to remember. Don't be put off just because some of the songs are for children, again, I picked them because of their simplicity.
