I stood in the shelves and opened A Castle on Viola Street - I was hooked after reading a letter located at the beginning of the book. This is a book with an important purpose. I tucked the book into my library bag. As I continued to hunt for the books on my list, I stumbled across the book The Old House by Pamela Duncan Edwards. I love books that students can make all sorts of connections to ...

A reassuring teaching story about a new home in a neighborhood that readers will recognize from DiSalvo's earlier work (Grandpa's Corner Store, 2000) with the spirit of her City Green (1994). In the old days, says Andy, he and his parents and sisters lived in a tiny apartment that was never quite warm enough. On Saturday mornings he and his sister would take a pile of quarters and brown-bag ...
