A Concise Chinese-English Dictionary for Lovers is a love-story, but part of the problem of the book is that they make such an odd and ultimately unconvincing pair. There seems little chance that he will give her practically any of the many things she wants, and his laid-back, take-it-as-it-comes attitude clashes with her ambition.

Review: A Concise Chinese-English Dictionary for Lovers by ...

When it was decided that I would go to China for one year with hardly any Chinese skills I looked for an English-Chinese dictionary as there were no good German-Chinese ones. The paper is very thin and the font rather small, so the book is quite thin and light-weight thinking of how comprehensive the dictionary is.
