If Vizio's 2016 lineup feels familiar, it's because the series names have been once again carried over from the previous year. But the real star of this year's show might just be SmartCast, a new kind of smart TV platform that puts all of the menus, apps, and playback controls on a secondary screen, keeping the big screen free of clutter.

Vizio Launches 2016 D-Series LED LCD TV Line | HD Guru
The Vizio D Series 4k UHD LED TV is a good budget TV that delivers better than average picture quality. Its aesthetic won't win anyone over, but it handles motion very well and is very responsive. It lacks some of the features found on higher end TVs but performs quite well - as long as it is viewed from directly in front.
