Review: A Really Incredible Feast - Eden.co.uk

My husband calls me lucky because I am always winning competitions. Whether is a defibrillator (yes I really did win a heart re-starter), a hamper of goodies or a book, I am always winning something. I like to think its because I have an “in it to win it” mentality, and so I just have ... Continue reading Mum on a Mission Reviews “A Really Incredible Feast”

FEAST (2005) is a really terrifying bloodbath of a dark comedy, one that's a perfect Halloween season film. Frame for frame, it just may be the goriest, grossest picture ever made. The violence is unrelenting! I love this one's humorous touches, like freeze-framing on each character to put up a spoof bio on them.

Although she wrote this recipe down many years ago (and we unfortunately don’t know where the recipe came from), it is the type of cookie recipe that is very much on-trend today with brittle and bark-type cookies and brownies being so popular! It’s actually very simple to achieve the “brittle” texture in these almond malted brittle bars.
