Absent A Novel

The novel reads well, smooth and catching, full of interesting characters and surprises. A Absent, the book's name in the English translation, is the first Iraqi novel I have read. I am very grateful for this view into Iraqi life during the 90's, a country deeply wounded by past wars and suffering greatly from sanctions.

Absent: A Novel by Betool Khedairi - Goodreads

For a book that is mere 180 pages long, Absent is surprisingly heart-wrenching. It is a poignant story about coming to terms with death, accepting things and moving on. Although short, Absent has many great qualities, like Katie Williams' simple, yet beautiful writing and many subtle messages that delicately, but firmly teach us the truths about life.
