The epigraph is an imaginary quote from an imaginary book called An Imperial Affliction. But who said the imaginary wasn't worth thinking about? Time is a big freakin' deal in The Fault in Our Stars because Hazel and Augustus don't have a lot of it left. The two are always discussing infinities and how some people have more time than others.

So everything put together makes for this oppressive "imperial affliction," which is a sort of metaphor for an all-encompassing despair. And where does it come from? The "Air," of course, since that's also where the slant of light comes from. The word "imperial" has a connotation of being everywhere. So not only has the speaker blended all the dots together, but she's also combined the inside and outside worlds in a way that makes them look like one and the same.
