If you truly want to become a ski bum, you can't be too picky about what job you'll accept. The people who move to ski towns who "can't find a job" are the people who will only work at one specific restaurant, or for no less than $15 per hour. People will often ask if they should find a ski job before moving out to the mountains. Most of the time, my answer is no. Sure, you can search, but many employers are wary of hiring people before meeting them in person.
