Bob And Otto - e13components.com

Bob was a caterpillar. Otto was a worm. Together, they were good friends who enjoyed digging in the ground, playing in the grass, and eating leaves that fell from the old tree. Would they always be friends or would changes in their lives send them in different directions? Would they always be important to each other.

Robert A. Otto

One day, Bob (a caterpillar) looks up into the tree and decides he needs to climb. Otto (an earthworm) stays below, digging in the soil. At this point, Bob's story appears on the top of the pages, with Otto's below. Bob climbs, eats, and takes a nap in a cocoon while Otto eats and digs through the dirt. Bob emerges as a beautiful yellow butterfly.
