Bridget Jones's Diary is a rom-com classic for a reason. It's possibly the host to one of Renee Zellweger's most iconic roles, one she plays out brilliantly as a down-on-her-luck 30-something-year-old woman who, by all accounts, doesn't fit society's standards of success for what a woman should be. She also can't seem to find a romantic partner who treats her with respect.
