The last reference to the 'Ignite' series and Reaper (Remy) was when he got some tats blackened out in the conclusion of book 2. The continuation was greatly anticipated and at long last, 'Ashes' (Ignite book 3) is here! It took a very different diection to what I had expected, as is the author's right.

A perfect follow up to Ignite. Burn kind of goes in a different direction then what i thought it would of gone but i guess now Lewis can make a series of books from all the characters in this series. But apart from that it was a great read! Not as good as the first one but still amazing and Jaxon wow! what a transformation from the first.
