Gender relations intersect with all other influences on social relations - age, ethnicity, race, religion, etc. - to determine the position and identity of people in a social group. Since gender relations are a social construct, they can be transformed over time to become more equitable.

*Household Methodologies
Sociology of gender is a prominent subfield of sociology. Social interaction directly correlated with sociology regarding social structure. One of the most important social structures is status. This is determined based on position that an*
