The Pomeranian and Chihuahua mix dog known as the Pom-Chi has been around for decades. But it was only in the last 20 or 30 years that breeders started intentionally crossing the two breeds. The Pom-Chi Club of America was established in the late '90s, so it's safe to assume that the breed was first developed in the United States at some point around that period.

The Chihuahua 's main claim to fame is that it is the world 's smallest dog breed. The exact origins of the Chihuahua are speculated, but this dog has been a domesticated breed in Mexico since at least the time of the Aztecs. It is believed that the Chihuahua descends from a similar, but somewhat larger breed, the Techichi.
