Walton was confident when composing in the grand manner; as an admirer of Elgar's Pomp and Circumstance marches, he did not resent comparisons between this splendid march, written for the coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth, and the older composer's popular patriotic flourishes.. The commission by the BBC called for "a symphonic march for Coronation Week," for which the composer ...*

Crown Imperial A Coronation March

Crown Imperial is an orchestral march by the English composer William Walton. Walton derived the march's title from the line "In beawtie berying the crone imperiall" from William Dunbar's poem "In Honour of the City of London".. The march was first performed at the coronation of King George VI in 1937 and was substantially revised in 1953. Walton originally composed the march for performance at ...
