In fact, according to Koo (2007), bullying was thought of as an innocent "misadventure" or "misbehavior" among schoolboys (p110). This type of bullying was clearly observed at King's Boarding School in the U.K when a twelve-year old boy was killed from bullying behaviors by his older classmates (Koo, 2007, p110).

Bullying : History of Bullying
In the old days, cybercrime did not include the fraudulent or illegal handling or theft of these digital assets, because the digital assets themselves didn't exist. Now, by contrast, there are all sorts of electronic assets sitting in digital wallets, and cyber-thieves trying to steal them.
