I've lived and hiked in the Colorado Plateau for nearly 20 years now, and I had never heard of Dave Rust until I read this book. Born in a hardscrabble area of central Utah, Mr. Rust and his father-in-law attempted to bring the North Rim of the Grand Canyon to the attention of the burgeoning public interest of the West's new national park system in the early 20th century.

A bumper sticker from the network's earliest days. After nearly four decades as a CNN cameraman, Dave Rust hasn't just collected the typical journalists' larder of press passes and selfies from the thousands of stories he's covered. He's become a sort of hoarder of CNN memorabilia, filling storage units with artifacts dating from the earliest days of the network.
