Desky Kernowek: A Complete Guide to Cornish by Nicholas ...

This course follows 'Desky Kernowek: A Complete Guide To Cornish' by Prof. Nicholas Williams. Like the book, it's suitable for beginners, but doesn't stop after the basics. The course is best used alongside the book for a good understanding. The spelling system used is Kernowek Standard, which is similar to the SWF with traditional graphs. I am not affiliated with the writer or publisher of ...

Kernowek Standard (KS, Standard Cornish), its initial version spelt Kernowak Standard, is a variety of the spelling of revived Cornish. It has two specifications, the first of which was published as a draft proposal in March 2007, and the second of which was published as a practical orthography in May 2012.

Books by Nicholas Williams (Author of Desky Kernowek)

Cornish (Kernewek, Kernowek) is a Brythonic language, similar to Welsh and Breton, spoken in Cornwall the south west peninsular of the United Kingdom. Unfortunately, the language underwent a severe decline as it was pushed west by English, and by the late 18th century it had ceased be a communal language and only spoken amongst farmers, fishermen and miners. The decline of these industries ...
