DESTINATION: VOID - Frank Herbert (1965) | Weighing a pig ...

Destination: Void is an excellent novel by Frank Herbert. It explores some very deep and interesting concepts, such as consciousness. Although It may be tough to get through, It is definately worth the effort. What makes it tough to get through at times is the technobabble, but if you don't pay too much attention to it, you'll be just fine.

You books. Frank Herbert. Destination: Void

Destination Void's a fairly difficult read and an even tougher "listen." Herbert's writing is dense with techno-babble and conceptual exposition. I had to, at many points, go back several paragraphs and re-read.
