Difficult Conversations. Difficult conversations are anything that someone does not want to talk about, such as asking for a raise or complaining to a neighbor about his barking dog. People are usually reluctant to open a difficult conversation out of fear of the consequences.

Difficult Conversations How To Discuss

Very basic info. The conversations presented were not ones I would consider difficult as they only require basic counseling skills. For me difficult conversations would be things like addressing insubordination at work or having to tell a family member that they or someone they love has a terminal illness.
