While I really have nothing but praise for Everything, Everything here is the thing. It's not for everyone. This book isn't about escapism but providing perhaps a character to relate to. Hence why Maddy is Black and Asian, just like Nicola Yoon's children will be.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: Everything, Everything

Anyway, to finish my review (rant?) EVERYTHING, EVERYTHING was a beautiful first love story with an upsetting twist--that yes, you'll probably see coming--and a bittersweet ending. I loved everything about it, and I will continue to read anything Nicola Yoon puts into the world.

Everything, Everything: Nicola Yoon: Amazon.com.au: Books

First-time author Nicola Yoon has done a wonderful job with this novel. Everything Everything is fast paced, unique, romantic, witty, frustrating, and heartbreaking altogether. One very important lesson that I took away from this novel is that love is never just a harmless emotion.
