Fifteen Poets Of The Aztec World - test.enableps.com

This excellent collection of Aztec poetry covers over a dozen major Aztec poets, both men and women, as they grapple with life, love, war, loyalty, the gods, sex, and of course death. Much of the poetry in this collection is in the form of songs, so they're several pages long and full of vivid, robust imagery that's meant to pull on the heart strings.

Fifteen Poets Of The Aztec

2016-11 - Fifteen Poets of the Aztec World. Miguel Leon-Portilla (Author). 1992. 307 Pages. The second book recommended by my guide in Nahua thought. A difficult book. The poetry is lovely but I really wonder if the author (who translated the text from Nahua) is reading too much into the meaning of the original text.
