There are nine Great Houses, and each of them have a number of vassal houses (sometimes also referred to as lesser houses) in their liege. The most powerful vassal houses may themselves field armies of a few thousand and control large regions, while the smallest houses may be little more than impoverished landholders with only a few men to their name.

Review: Game of Thrones: A Guide to Westeros and Beyond

I find that three main houses work well better in multiball: House Greyjoy, House Lannister and the final phase of House Targaryen. House Greyjoy works well because all the shots in the mode are exactly the same as the jackpot shots in Blackwater Multiball, meaning every shot not only gets you closer to finishing the Greyjoy mode, but also scores you a jackpot.
