George Nader - Wikipedia

George Nader, Actor: Robot Monster. Born in Pasadena, California, George Nader became interested in acting while still in school and appeared in several productions at the Pasadena Playhouse. This led to several small parts in movies before earning the lead role in the infamous 3D thriller Robot Monster (1953). The movie was bad but profitable, and Nader soon had a contract with ...

Chrome 1ST Edition by George Nader - Goodreads

Perhaps all George Nader intended was a sweet semi-pornographic romp in space — Chrome had many “ lovers ” and some scenes played out like a bad porno — such as the obviously gratuitous inclusion of a helicopter bondage scene. But, wow, did Nader develop a solid back-story for this sexy romp!

First of all, it's a hoot that George Nader wrote this -- he was one of the hottest young stars in Hollywood in his day. But he's a very good writer, too. I paid a lot of money for this tome, but it was worth every cent. I couldn't put it down. Besides an intriguing premise, the futuristic view he puts forth is cool simply because of the date ...

George Nader, one of my gay fantasies when I was a 12 year old in 1952. Never knew he was gay until I read a Rock Hudson biography. Interestingly, I always thought George was much sexier than Rock. It's a shame George never achieved major stardom. He certainly had screen presence. My two teenage fantasy were George Nader and Guy Madison.
