The Great Get Together was an initiative founded in 2017 by the family and friends of Jo Cox in partnership with more than 100 organisations. Since then we've heard from all quarters that the Great Get Together shouldn't be a one-off, so it's now a project of The Jo Cox Foundation (registered charity number 117083).

If the landlord and tenant work together to apply and get this rental assistance, the court will then dismiss the eviction case. That way the landlord gets paid and the tenant stays in the home. The judge will also seal the court record so that future landlords won't see it and hold the eviction case against the tenant.

How Do Hackers Get Into Computer Systems? In the computer world, there are good guys who create networks that help us communicate, work with others and get information...and then there are those not-so-good guys and girls who, for a variety of reasons, like to use their computers to worm their way into those networks and cause trouble.
