Ghost in this House - Alison Krauss + Union Station . The "Ghost in this House" is actually the narrator of the song. She sings that since she broke up with her love, he's taken her body and soul, and all that is left is a ghost. But further on in the song, you find out that she's not sad because there's another ghost living in the house with her.

Ghost Country enters the difficult electric air between cultures and lovers, alive to the fierce exoticism of desire but also to its confusions, its political and personal dissonances. Set in contemporary China, these poems spring from the intense anguished observations of the lover of a culture who is also, inescapably, the outsider.

Ghost Country by Sara Paretsky - Goodreads

Ghost Country relies heavily on sci-fi plot devices to drive the story along, so a strong ability to suspend disbelief is required. As with The Breach the action sequences are brilliantly handled. The tone and pace of Ghost Country is very different to the previous book, with violence & action less frequent, but when the guns do start firing its punchy, exciting and dramatic.
