Introduction: Why Can't We Talk About Religion and Politics? God's Politics challenges everything about our politics. It reminds us of the people who are always neglected -- the poor, vulnerable, and left behind. And it challenges Left and Right by offering a new vision for faith and politics in America.

God's Politics - Jim Wallis - Paperback

God's Politics shows how both the right and left need to put themselves under the microscope: the right because of its emphasis on 'family values' and tax cuts to the neglect of social justice, the environment, and the poor the left because it thinks that religion is irrelevant and not worth thinking about.
