Writing Archives - Not So Wimpy Teacher

Writing is not limited to any specific form, function, or genre. Writers often choose a form in which to participate—a story or a poem or a letter—but these choices are part of the writing process, and writers should never feel limited by them. Rather, the form and the purpose and the writer should work together—hopefully elegantly.

Jane Kenyon, "Not Writing" – Rethink.

Writing is not measured in page counts, I now believe, any more than a writer is defined by publication credits. To be a writer is to make a commitment to the long haul, as one does (especially as one gets older) to keeping fit and healthy for as long a run as possible.
