After working for some time in my company I started having some back/neck pain. Nothing too much at first, but after more time it got worse. After some googling I came to the conclusion that my office chair was not ideal for me, and I asked my manager if it's possible to get a new chair, to which he replied "No".

I am not a chair is about a young giraffe who is mistaken for a chair amongst his jungle friends. No matter what it does it seems like he cannot convince them he is not a chair until the very end of the book. This book was filled with humor and the pictures on the page were well drawn and colorful.
