Emily Dickinson – If I should die | Genius

If I should die before the rest of you Break not a flower nor inscribe a stone Nor, when I'm gone, speak in a Sunday voice. But be the usual selves that I have known. Weep if you must. Parting is hell. But life goes on. So sing as well. Joyce Grenfell. Print this funeral poem

"If I Should Die" - Death and dying

If I should die and leave you Be not like the others, quick undone Who keep long vigils by the silent dust and weep. For my sake turn to life and smile Nerving thy heart and trembling hand to comfort weaker souls than thee. Complete these unfinished tasks of mine And I perchance may therein comfort thee.
