Inequality Reexamined — Amartya Sen | Harvard University Press

The noted economist and philosopher Amartya Sen argues that the dictum “ all people are created equal ” serves largely to deflect attention from the fact that we differ in age, gender, talents, and physical abilities as well as in material advantages and social background. He argues for concentrating on higher and more basic values: individual capabilities and freedom to achieve objectives.

Inequality Reexamined Analysis - eNotes.com

Sen begins Inequality Reexamined by arguing that equality plays a key role in all political philosophies of any consequence. Even those that are commonly perceived as anti-egalitarian advocate equality in some "space" — libertarianism advocates equality of libertarian rights, for example, while utilitarianism assigns equal weight to individual utilities.
