Community Reviews. Lady Odette, the heroine of Intriguing The Viscount, is the half-English daughter of the aristocrat in question. Exiled to England when very young, she has lived happily with her mother's family ever since. Trying to be a dutiful daughter to the father she hardly knows, she is a very sweet and charming character...

Community Reviews. The Virgin and the Viscount is an incredible, amazing Historical Romance. Elisabeth and Bryson's romance has everything I look for in a story from this era: witty flirting, a strong heroine, a hero that swoons me off my feet... But most of all, it's the depth of love that I feel between both characters.

An intriguing story of despair, humiliation, secrets, fear, hope and love. Great plot and storyline, with wonderful main characters and some not so wonderful secondary ones. This story keeps your interest from page one and is a fantastic addition to the series.

Despite being the third in the series, this novel can easily be enjoyed as a standalone. Overall, Vanquishing the Viscount is a historical romance told in an easy, enjoyable style. The characters are interesting and drive the plot forward. While the plot is not anything too heavy, it is still developed enough to hold the reader's attention.
