Jesus also went to Kashmir, because then it was known that Moses had found the lost tribe there. The doors of Judea were closed - he would be hanged again - and the only place where he would find the people who speak the same language, the people who have a same kind of mind, where he would not be a foreigner, was Kashmir.

Jesus in Kashmir The Lost Tomb by Suzanne Olsson

The "lost years of Jesus" concept is usually encountered in esoteric literature (where it at times also refers to his possible post-crucifixion activities) but is not commonly used in scholarly literature since it is assumed that Jesus was probably working as a carpenter in Galilee, at least some of the time with Joseph, from the age of 12 to 29, so the years were not "lost years", and that he ...
