Killing Floor Jack Reacher 1

I started reading the Jack Reacher books years ago and after the movie came out, decided I'd go back and read them again. I realize that Killing Floor is the first book, and they'll probably improve, but this one was not well written. The same phrases are used repeatedly, and "said" tags are so numerous they distract from the story.

He's a one-man swat team correcting injustice as it finds him. In "Killing Floor" he just happens to get off the bus near the intersection of a small town in Georgia and after wandering on foot into the town of Margrave he is immediately arrested for a brutal murder which he obviously did not commit.
