An Open Letter To My Younger Sister

There isn't one person I'd pick to be my sister over you (even though you don't get to choose your siblings). Thank you for always listening to me when no one else would. Thank you for understanding things that no one else could.

A Love Letter To My Little Sister | Thought Catalog

Dear Little Sis, If I could speak for most older siblings, I'd have to say we take growing up with our younger counterparts for granted. As I've grown older and matured, I know the true value of having a little sibling. So, I just wanted to say how much I appreciate and love my little sister. Thank you for being a part of my childhood.

Letters to a Young Sister: DeFINE Your... book by Hill Harper

Dear sister, When I was younger, I always prayed for a sister. I wanted someone that I could relate to, someone who looked up to me, someone I could boss around. And when you were born, I got most of that. You're too hardheaded to let me boss you around, but besides that, you're a pretty cool younger sister.
