Mama Is A Miner

Mama is a Miner is a cultural gem (no pun intended). It connects the graceful family life to the grueling mine life as the pages switch from mama being in the mine to mama being at home with her family. This is the reality for miners everywhere today, yesterday, and the days before and it is a reality that a lot kids have not come to truly know.

Mama Is a Miner (review) Mama Is a Miner (review) Wilson, Jane R. 1995-01-08 00:00:00 reader pause, sometimes, to read the story over, to grasp at the truth of the tale. The truth is elusive, however, and the light is dim in seeing the truth. The experience of seeking what is true and real, however, is perhaps what touches all of us, though the way is not always clear.
