Medieval Punishments An Illustrated History Medieval Punishments provides an historical background and information that the reader probably only has scant knowledge. Other than that it is very repetitious and the reader better served by a pamphlet.

Medieval Punishments: An Illustrated History of Torture by ... The title says "illustrated", it only has a few illustrations (drawings actually). It only covers about a dozen methods of punishment, with only brief descriptions of the actual thing, and then much rambling about each, stories about when and where this was used. It is also focused strictly on stuff used in England. Quite a letdown.
