Ms. Kirby is a monster or at least Bobby thinks she is. Bobby thinks his teacher is a monster because when he flies his paper airplanes in class, she yells at him and then takes away his recess from him for throwing the airplane. She also stomped as she walks in her classroom and she stomps as she tries to get the class to settle down during the day.

My Teacher Is a MONSTER! - Peter Brown

Bobby's teacher stomps, roars and takes away recess (not without reason). The little boy's only refuge is the park—but so is Ms. Kirby's. In a marvelously illustrated, wordless spread, Brown shows how both Ms. Kirby and Bobby feel when their private moments are interrupted by the other.

Story line features a student who thinks his teacher is a monster for not letting him goof off. He pictures her that way (I thought comments like "move it or lose it" were inappropriate for a teacher to use). When he meets her by chance at a park, her appearance changes as he gets to know her better.
