Other Electricities is a new physics of prose, a lyric string theory of charged and sparkling sentences. What a kite What a key ~-Michael Martone "Monson is tuned in to our crackling, chaotic, juiced-up times like no other young writer I know. Other Electricities is necessary reading."--Robert Olen Butler

Other Electricities by Ander Monson - Goodreads
Overview. Uncompromising, hypnotic and darkly humorous, Other Electricities charts a new and strange direction in American fiction. "Like Franklin's discovery of the electricity we do know, Monson's luminous, galvanized book represents a paradigm shift. The frequencies of the novel have been scrambled and redefined by this elegant experiment.

Monson's Other Electricities is collection of delicate and moving short stories, or rather "shorts" that piece together the life of a group of friends and families who are coping with death, love loss, boredom, malaise. The best story in this book remains the title piece, that to me seems the heart of the entire book.
