Characters like Padmavati the harlot, who drags her bruised body to a holy shrine, personify the unworldly wisdom with which Kamala Das endowed her best female protagonists. She has also created several nuanced male characters for example, the hapless father in the 1991 short story Neypayasam , who shelters his children from their mother's death.

Stories that Touch the Soil
"Padmavati, the Harlot" is written in a similar vein. Here the female protagonist, a middle-aged harlot, herself a victim of sexual prejudices at the end of the story is seen walking away in a coy but triumphant gait with the men who previously abused her and impeded her spiritual quest literally prostrating at her feet, asking for her benison.
