Stu Station is blogging through Wayne Grudem's Systematic Theology. This is the first systematic theology I've read, although I have read numerous other theological books and a few that are basically doctrine-lite textbooks. I'm hoping that through this study I'll learn a lot and be humble enough to

Recently, Wayne Grudem became news when he responded to an editorial that supported the removal of the president from office. In his disagreement, he wrote a response which resulted in my discovery of his book Politics According to the Bible: A Comprehensive Resource for Understanding Modern Political Issues in Light of Scripture. I don't know why

Doctrine of Justification: Wayne Grudem Systematic Theology

As Wayne wraps up his 5 year long series of lectures going through his excellent Systematic Theology, he looks at the varying views of the millennium, final judgment, hell, and the new heavens and new earth. Wayne spends little time on the Post-millennial view because it's based on very few and very weak proof-texts.
