Praetorian : The Rise and Fall of Rome`S Imperial ...

To that end, British historian Guy de la Bédoyère's Praetorian chronicles the rise and fall of the Guard, which both protected and destroyed many emperors during its nearly 350-year history. De la Bédoyère illuminates this important facet of Roman history with precision, style and plenty of intrigue as regimes rise, prefects fall and emperors descend into madness.

Praetorian: The Rise and Fall of Rome's Imperial Bodyguard ... De la Bédoyère notes that the Praetorian's ability to survive the fall Julio-Claudian dynasty was significant and proved that they exercised power independent of the regime. This was most probably due to their unique geographic proximity to the seat of imperial power.
