Book Review: Princess of the Midnight Ball by Jessica Day ...

I think The Princess of the Midnight Ball was very interesting. It kind of took me on an adventure. I also think this book is a little similar to the movie The 12 Dancing Princesses. It is similar in some ways like there are 12 daughters that love to dance, there mother died, and there is a main character that is the oldest.

Princess of the Midnight Ball (Jessica Day George) » Read ...

Princess of the Midnight Ball is an incredibly loyal retelling of the original fairy tale, deviating only to enhance characters and create a compelling backstory. I happen to be a sucker for retellings, especially ones that take big chances and deviate significantly from the original tale (Elizabeth C. Bunce's stellar debut novel, A Curse Dark As Gold comes to mind).
