Prophecys Daughter The Endarian Prophecy
And that's the only thing I didn't love about Prophecy's Daughter. The rest built on the previous book, deepening the plot and filling out the characters readers already know, while deftly inserting newly introduced characters into the intricately plotted puzzle. The descriptions of the various kinds of magic in play were satisfyingly detailed.
