My mom came for a visit this weekend. We enjoyed walks around town, the rooftop, wine and good company! My sister Jeannette and nephew William joined us on Saturday evening for a sleep over and we decided to go wild and have a Saturday night dinner, in Sunday style....

65 of Mom's Meals You'll Want to Whip Up Tonight
Nice recipes throughout but going through the book all I could think was that her mother must have been affluent. Or food was cheaper in her day. After all an average household these days cannot afford pheasant, duck, crab and good quality fish or beef for a weekday meal. Maybe have some of her recipes as a weekend dish or monthly treat.

My mom used pickled chili peppers as a basic flavor enhancing ingredient in countless recipes. In Boston during the '50s and '60s chili peppers were considered ethnic foods and were not as widely available in supermarkets as they are today. To an enterprising opportunist like my mother, this never seemed to pose any problem.
