Scourged is the ninth and final book in the Iron Druid series. I am glad I waited to start the Iron Druid after the whole series was released, I prefer to read long series all at once so I do not forget anything. Sadly I did not care for Scourged or for the overall ending of the series. Atticus knows Loki is coming and most likely coming for him.

The Iron Druid Chronicles Wiki | Fandom

I wrote a coda to the Iron Druid Chronicles in Death & Honey, the sort of epilogue that 's far too long to include at the end of a book as it 's an adventure in its own right and significantly later than the events of Scourged, and it 's also after Atticus has had some time to process what happened in the last book.

Scourged (Audiobook) by Kevin Hearne | Audible.com

I devoured Scourged by Kevin Hearne, the ninth and final book in the Iron Druid Chronicles within the first 24 hours of its release. Once again, I listened to the brilliant narrations of Luke Daniels. Then, I listened again. As much as I am not ready to say goodbye to this series, Hearne delivered an intense, twisted and heartfelt finale that still left the door open for more stories.
