Secrets to Happiness Quotes by Sarah
Dunn - Goodreads

Deftly mixing humor and pathos, Sarah Dunn's Secrets to Happiness delivers an entertaining story of professional women living the city life. It has been likened to a hybrid of Candace Bushnell, Edith Wharton, and Jane Austen, and Kirkus Reviews calls it a "smart chick-lit tale with dark undertones."

Secrets to Happiness: A Novel - Kindle edition by Sarah ...

A newly divorced scriptwriter's search for happiness involves lovers old and new and an adopted dog with a brain tumor. Sharp-witted Dunn follows her debut (The Big Love, 2004) with a predictably formatted tale simultaneously elevated by its snappy humor and tinged by some reflective shading. Although the story's principal focus is Holly—35 and only one year out of her marriage to an unfaithful spouse—it also includes the perspectives of several friends and colleagues, each trying to ...
