Selected Poems, 1923-1958 by E.E. Cummings - Goodreads
Just the poems and an index of first lines. The flaw, at least for me, is that my favorite poem and one of the most known from e. e. cummings is lacking: "somewhere i have never traveled, gladly beyond", that one with the end line "no one, not even the rain, has such small hands". Maybe it is post 1958, but I don't know. Overall, a good book.

Selected Poems 1923 1958
Selected Poems 1923-1958 was a reread for me. I adore cummings' poetry; it feels fresh and experimental, even reading it in the twenty-first century. The selections for this particular volume were made by cummings himself, from eleven of his previous bodies of work.
