In the last century, the pace at which the world operates has accelerated exponentially. As a response to these changes, a philosophy has commenced that touches on the many facets of our world. Marketing, fashion, media and technology are just a small example of the areas of life that have been influenced by this movement. The slow movement advocates a cultural shift toward slowing down life's pace. It began with Carlo Petrini's protest against the opening of a McDonald's restaurant in Piazza di
